

THE HAWK EUROPEAN TOUR 2007

For the first time, Hawk Clothing are organising their first skate competition on a European scale.

The competition will incorporate the following 5 pre-selection events; Hall 04 (Hossegor, France), Barcelona (Spain), Nantes (France), Milan (Italy), London (UK) The final will be held in Biarritz (France).

There is no limit to the number of entrants in each of the 5 pre-selection events.

At each event, riders from the Hawk team will be present for demonstrations, hands-on skate advice and to judge the contests.

The event is specially intended for skaters (male and female) under the age of 18.

There will be 3 categories: [boys 10-14], [boys 14-18], [girls under 18].

Each participant will receive a prize. The winner of each pre-selection event will win a trip to the grand final in Biarritz (France).

The winner of each category (at the final) will win a ticket for 2 to skate in the United States.

The concept in brief:

The contests are free to enter and open to all amateur skaters under 18.

The skaters will be judged on their best series of tricks within 3 disciplines:
Manual pad, curb and flat.

For the events held in skateparks, the format will be different. The judges will be scoring on 4 criteria:

1. Difficulty of tricks performed.
2. Style, control and reception.
3. Originality and innovative use of the skatepark.
4. Motivation.

The final will be held on the 7 July 2007 in Biarritz.
